Subject: Procedure for Addressing Residential and Commercial Eviction Proceedings

=====

As the Court System continues its expansion of court operations around the State in coordination with the Governor's reopening of various geographic regions, we remain concerned about the adverse public health consequences that may arise from a sudden high-volume influx of eviction matters, often involving unrepresented tenants (and unrepresented landlords in some cases) and necessitating in-court appearances. In addition, as you know, an assortment of restrictions on filing and prosecution of eviction matters remains in force under federal statutes, gubernatorial executive orders, and other legal authority. For these reasons, we have established the following protocol for handling of eviction proceedings pursuant to Article 7 of the Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law (RPAPL), effective June 20, 2020:

- Commencement documents in eviction proceedings must be filed with the court by NYSCEF or mail only at this time (AO/121/20 [Exh A]).
- Until further order, petitions in commercial and residential eviction proceedings (for nonpayment of rent or on other grounds) are required to include two additional documents (AO/127/20 [Exh. B, with attachments]):

1. A form petitioner's attorney affirmation (or, for self-represented petitioners, a petitioner's affidavit), indicating that counsel (or the self-represented petitioner) has reviewed the various state and federal restrictions and qualifications on eviction proceedings and believes in good faith that the proceeding is consistent with those restrictions and qualifications; and

2. A form notice to respondent-tenants (in English and Spanish), informing them that they may be eligible for an extension of time to respond to the petition in light of legal directives related to the COVID-19 pandemic, and directing them to a telephone number and/or website link for further information. (Separate form notices have been provided for proceedings inside and outside New York City.)

- Whether or not an answer is filed in an eviction matter, further hearing of the case shall be stayed until such time as gubernatorial Executive Orders suspending statutory timetables for the prosecution of legal matters (i.e., 202.8, as extended by 202.14, 202.28, and 202.38) expire. In conjunction with AO/68/20, this continues the suspension of eviction matters for the time being, with a singular exception:
 - Evictions matters commenced on or before March 16, 2020 in which all parties are represented by counsel shall be eligible for calendaring for virtual settlement conferences.
- At or before the expiration of the Governor's executive order suspending statutory timetables, we will issue further directives on the processing of these cases.

On a related note: as you may be aware, we are in the final stage of authorizing consensual electronic filing of New York City Housing Court matters, as part of the New York State Courts Electronic Filing System (NYSCEF). We anticipate that the system – a substantial enhancement of our e-filing functionality -- will be operational later this summer. Additional information about training and implementation will issue in the near future.

Please distribute this memorandum and attachments as necessary.

EXHIBIT A

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE OF THE COURTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me, at the direction of the Chief Judge, and consistent with the Governor's determination approving the easing of restrictions on commerce imposed due to the COVID-19 health emergency, I hereby direct that, effective June 10, 2020:

1. In courts and case types approved for electronic filing through the New York State Courts Electronic Filing System (NYSCEF), represented parties must commence new matters or proceed in pending matters exclusively by electronic filing through NYSCEF, and must file and serve papers in such matters (other than service of commencement documents) by electronic means through NYSCEF or, where permitted under NYSCEF court rules, by mail. Unrepresented parties must file, serve and be served in such matters by non-electronic means unless they expressly opt in to participate in NYSCEF.
2. To the extent that NYSCEF electronic filing is unavailable in courts or case types in the trial courts, represented parties must commence new matters exclusively by mail, except where otherwise authorized by the Chief Administrative Judge. Following commencement of a new matter, and in pending matters, represented parties must file papers through the Unified Court System's Electronic Document Delivery System (EDDS) or by mail, and must serve papers (other than commencement documents) by electronic means or by mail. Unrepresented parties must file, serve and be served in such matters by non-electronic means unless they provide written notification to the court and all parties that they wish to file, serve and be served electronically.
3. This order shall not affect procedures for the filing and service of papers in essential matters.
4. The court shall not request working copies of documents in paper format.

EXHIBIT B

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER OF THE
CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE JUDGE OF THE COURTS

Pursuant to the authority vested in me, I hereby order and direct that, effective June 20, 2020, petitions in eviction proceedings involving residential or commercial property pursuant to Article 7 of the Real Property Actions and Proceedings Law (RPAPL), whether brought on the ground that the respondent has defaulted in the payment of rent or on some other ground, shall require the inclusion of (1)(a) an attorney affirmation in the form attached as Exh. 1a, in cases where the petitioner is represented by counsel, or (1)(b) a petitioner's affidavit in the form attached as Exh. 1b, in cases where the petitioner is self-represented; and (2) a Notice to Respondent Tenant in the form attached as Exh. 2a (if filing within the City of New York) or Exh. 2b (if filing outside the City of New York).

Consistent with prior and current gubernatorial Executive Orders (EO/202.8, EO/202.14, EO/202.28, EO/202.38) and Administrative Order AO/68/20, RPAPL eviction matters commenced on or before March 16, 2020 shall continue to be suspended until further order; eviction proceedings filed after March 16, 2020 shall, upon the filing of a petition (if no answer is filed thereafter) or the filing of an answer, be suspended until further order. Notwithstanding the foregoing, eviction matters in which all parties are represented by counsel shall be eligible for calendaring for virtual settlement conferences.

This order shall take effect on June 20, 2020, and shall remain in effect for such time as state and federal emergency measures addressing the COVID-19 pandemic amend or suspend statutory provisions governing eviction proceedings, or until further order.
